Village of Promise

Village of Promise (VoP) empowers families to advance out of poverty using a multi-generational approach, promising support through a continuum of services, and inspiring them to achieve their goals and contribute to their community.

Village of Promise Is...

- A 501(c)(3) Nonprofit organization celebrating its 14th year of transforming lives, one family at a time!
- A Family Advancement Center, empowering people toward breaking the cycle of poverty.
- A multi-generational organization with opportunities for the entire family. VoP currently serves more than 200 families and the community through early childhood programs, K-12 and college academic programs, parent training, and family success planning programs.
- A relationship-focused success organization. VoP walks with their families on their journey, no matter how long.
- Passionate about connecting their families with resources from nonprofit and corporate partners and government agencies.

Speaker Series 2025

“It really does take a Village!” – VoP CEO Dana M. Gillis

“For several years, the Village of Promise has hosted its Speaker Series, highlighting thought leaders to speak to the Huntsville community about best-practice solutions for addressing generational poverty. From its initial speaker, Geoffrey Canada, of the Harlem Children’s Zone, to most recently, Mae Jemison, MD, listeners have been informed and challenged to re-think what is possible as the Village of Promise delivers on its mission of ‘...empower[ing] families to advance out of poverty... to achieve their goals and contribute to their community.’

Make a lasting impact by joining our village and investing into the lives of families in our local community.”

Dana M. Gillis, Chief Executive Officer
